WHERE TO LIVE

Whether you would like to live on campus or off campus, there are several options you can explore to find housing to suit your needs. Options include homestay, which allows you to experience life with a local family while you study.

Temporary and short-stay accommodation

If you are intending to organise long-term off-campus accommodation once you arrive in Queensland, it is important that you also find temporary accommodation for your first few days or weeks in the state. This will give you time to inspect your long-term off-campus accommodation before you move in. There are short-term accommodation options located near each of our campuses that are easily accessible by public transport.

Off campus

Share house

In Australia, share housing—where you share a house or apartment with a number of other students—is the most common form of off-campus accommodation.

When looking for suitable off-campus accommodation, you will need to consider:

- the cost of rent (usually advertised as a weekly amount)
- if utilities are included in your rent (electricity, water, gas)
- if internet is included in your rent
- if the accommodation is furnished
- how close the accommodation is to your campus
- access to public transport.

Off-campus student accommodation

There are a number of purpose-built student accommodation providers. You should review their offerings in relation to your needs and contact them directly for more information.

Homestay accommodation

Homestay accommodation gives you the opportunity to live with an Australian family while you study. It is a great way to develop your English language skills and experience life in Australia, and offers catered and self-catered options. Homestay is available to students at all Griffith campuses.

The Australian Homestay Network provides homestay accommodation for Griffith students.

Additional resources

You can find additional resources for accommodation options on the Gold Coast on the Experience Gold Coast website at experiencegoldcoast.com/study/live/student-accommodation

On campus

Griffith offers self-catered accommodation at Brisbane South (Nathan) and partners with Campus Living Villages to provide self-catered, on-campus accommodation in the Griffith University Village on the Gold Coast.

Living on campus is a fantastic way to meet new people, find out about new cultures and develop independence. On-campus accommodation is fully furnished and provides access to cooking facilities, laundry facilities, common rooms and internet, as well as offering a vibrant social life.

Airport pickup

International students commencing at Griffith University can apply for a free airport pickup, which takes you from the airport directly to your pre-arranged accommodation. The service is free for eligible new international students arriving at the Brisbane or Gold Coast airports.

griffith.edu.au/airport-reception

Cost of living

There are many different costs involved in international study and your cost of living in Australia will vary depending on your lifestyle and personal requirements.

The Australian Government requires students to have access to a minimum of A$29,710* per year to meet their living costs, but most students spend more than this. Costs will be higher if you have family members accompanying you.

* As at February 2026.

Calculating your total cost of study

Your total cost of studying in Australia will include:

- tuition fees
- visa application fees
- Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)
- flights
- cost of living
- other personal and study-related expenses.

Tuition fees

Tuition fees are reviewed annually, and international students should expect an increase in fees each year.

Detailed information on the fees relevant for your degree, including the fees applicable in your commencing trimester, is available at degrees.griffith.edu.au

“My favourite thing about living in Brisbane is definitely the people and the location. The city doesn't feel overcrowded or stressful, but at the same time there is always something to do, which makes it a really nice balance. What I especially love is how easy it is to experience so many different things. You can go to the beach at the Gold Coast, spend time in nature, or just explore the city itself. How to apply

1 CHOOSE YOUR PREFERRED RESEARCH DEGREE AND CHECK ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

If you don't meet the direct entry requirements for a research degree, you may consider a Graduate Diploma of Research Studies or provide other evidence of your research experience, which provides an alternate pathway into such programs.

2 FIND AND CONNECT WITH A RESEARCH SUPERVISOR OR PROJECT

Depending on your area of study and research, you may be starting at the very beginning with a unique proposal or you may be able to join an established research project.

If considering your own proposal, you are best to first identify a potential supervisor who works in your area of interest through the Griffith Experts database. You will then need to contact them directly via email to discuss your research proposal.

Discover our academic and research experts now:
experts.griffith.edu.au

Griffith also has a number of established research projects that you can apply to directly. These are available particularly in areas of science and health research.

Explore our projects now:
griffith.edu.au/research-study/find-supervisor-project

2027 INTAKE DATES

Griffith offers you multiple intake dates to commence your PhD or Master of Philosophy.

Intake 1	22 February 2027
Intake 2	19 April 2027
Intake 3	5 July 2027
Intake 4	11 October 2027

3 DEVELOP YOUR RESEARCH PROPOSAL

Your research question will provide the key research focus for the full duration of your degree, so it is important that you consult a wide variety of resources and select a topic you feel highly motivated to investigate.

Narrow your focus to a single research topic. Once you have connected with your prospective supervisor, it is important that you seek their input and advice on your research proposal. If you are joining an established research project, your prospective supervisor will assist you to prepare your research proposal.

4 CONSIDER THE COST OF STUDY AND SEARCH FOR FUNDING OPTIONS

This could include scholarships or sponsorships. You may also seek a connection with an industry partner to collaborate on your proposed research project.

5 GATHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Ensure you have all the documents you need, including a CV that uses our CV template. Find this template and our application checklist at our website listed below.

This student-led program will give you the opportunity to meet your peers, who will often form part of your industry network as you enter the aviation workforce.

At the start of the program, students are allocated to flight groups. Your nominated Flight Leaders then mentor each group through numerous challenges. Chief Student Pilots oversee the program, which provides support during your transition to university and, ultimately, the aviation industry.

Weekly networking events bring the entire cohort together in a social environment where students gain practical insights into the industry, listening to guest speakers from across the many and varied aviation professions.

“At Griffith, I felt really seen by my tutors—they saw a strength in me and a power for storytelling and gave me opportunities and challenges to step into.”

Landing the lead role of Eliza in the multi-award-winning musical Hamilton (2024, Sydney Lyric Theatre) was nothing short of a dream come true for musical theatre alumnus Vidya Makan. “I feel like it’s the peak of my career ... it’s definitely a really, really special moment in time for me,” she said.

Vidya’s love for music started early, with her parents often taking her to see musicals. She soon became an avid pianist and cellist and found her true passion in her high school production of My Fair Lady.

“Studying musical theatre at Griffith helped me see my own potential and really set me up to work in this industry,” she says.

Ms Makan made her debut as a composer/lyricist, writing a show called The Lucky Country—a musical that delves deep into the themes of identity and belonging, exploring what it means to be Australian.
